Numb. 8138.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 20. to Saturday July 24. 1742.

Whitehall, July 24.

AS the whole Dutchy of Lower Silesia, with part of Upper Silesia, have been yielded to his Majesty the King of Prussia; in full Sovereignty and Independance on the Kingdom of Bohemia, and his said Majesty finding himself actually in the peaceable Possession of those Provinces, his first Care has been to make Commerce flourish there, which for a long Time past has very much decay'd.

But among divers Proposals made towards attaining that good End, it has been found convenient to settle in the Town of Breslau two great Fairs yearly, in lieu of the small ones held there hitherto; and his Majesty having been graciously pleased to condescend thereunto, has ordered, that every Year the first of those Fairs shall be opened on the Sunday of Lætare, and the second on the Monday preceding the Feast of the Nativity of the Virgin, or else the Day of that Feast; if it happens to fall on the Monday; each of those Fairs is to last a Week, and the Week following will be that which is called the Week of Payments.

For this Purpose the necessary Regulation is actually carrying on for the Security of those who may be willing to frequent the said new Fairs, that they may find an intire Safety as well for their Persons as their Money, Merchandizes and other Effects. The Custom Duties will also be laid upon so moderate a Foot, that every Body will find their Account in it: And lastly, all the Regulations will be forthwith published, that such as shall have a Mind to repair to the first Fair at Breslau the 3d of September next, N. S. may take their Measures accordingly.

In the mean Time his said Majesty the King of Prussia has ordered his Minister at the British Court to publish his said Royal Resolution, not doubting but the Merchants and Traders of Great Britain in particular will find an Encouragement therein, and Advantages in their Commerce, as it is his Prussian Majesty's Intention to contribute thereto on this Occasion.

Vienna, July 18, N. S. Count Khevenhuller has sent a strong Detachment over the Isser, to try once more to bring the Enemy to an Action, or at least to make some Motion; and in Bohemia every thing is preparing for the Attack of Prague, which is now upon the Point of being begun in Form.

Dresden, July 25, N. S. Advices from the Austrian Army of the 20th Instant say, that they had received the Day before all the Artillery they expected from Brunn and Vienna, with the necessary Ammunition, and that M. Festutiz was arrived at the Camp, as would the last Column of his Corps the 23d; that they had made between 40 and 50000 Fascines, and should have a Man for each Fascine, and intended to begin the Siege towards the Beginning of this Week.

Hambourg, July 27, N. S. It is reported here, that Count Lowenhaupt has abandoned the Town of Friderickham, and retreated with his Army into Swedish Finland.

Naples, July 3, N. S, On the 29th past it was currently reported about the City, that three English Ships of War off the Bocche di Capri had fired several times on two Gallies of this Port on refusing to bring to, though without causing any Damage.

Rome, July 7. On the 30th past Cardinal Tencin had an Audience of Leave of the Pope on his Departure to France, and on the 1st Instant, attended by the Bali his Nephew, set out for Civita Vecchia, to embark on board the Pope's Gallies for Marseilles. Some few Days ago four Neapolitan Row-Boats, with Provisions and Ammunition for the Spanish and Neapolitan Armies, arrived at Rimini, and were obliged to perform Quarantine, as coming from suspected Parts. Cardinal del Giudice has lately received the Credentials from the Queen of Hungary as Protector of her Dominions. On the 3d Instant a Courier arrived here from the King of Sardinia, with Orders to his Minister to ask the Pope's Permission for a Body of Troops to pass into the State of Bologna, and to concert the necessary Dispositions so as to be least burthensome to a Conntry already exhausted by the Spaniards. Cardinal Acquaviva dispatched immediately a Courier to Naples with this Notice.

Mantua, July 11. N. S. The Troops of the Garrison of Mirandola have mutinied, and having seized one of the Gates, several Hundreds have deserted, and taken the Route of the Sardinian and Austrian Camp.

Florence, July 15. M. de Montemar has withdrawn Part of his Troops to his former Incampment of Santa Bianca, on account of the bad Situation, and Want of Forages, and designs to build a Bridge over a Branch of the Po, called Po di Volano, in order to draw a Line from Spedaletto to Patantone, so as to secure the Supply of Forages by the Conveniency of that River. The Hussars have seized several Boats with Baggages and Provisions belonging to the Spaniards.
